Although we can't still any pre-wedding jitters or mother-in-law comments, our bells & whistles package has been designed to take the stress out of your reception planning. It's all part of our commitment to ensuring you have more time to think about the things that really matter... like the shoes, the suits & the all important dress!

Along with a two-course plated dining experience, you'll receive:

Reception room set to your specifications including a lectern with microphone to ensure everyone can hear the best man's speech!

On arrival, chef's selection of canapés for the bridal party during a thirty minute service of drinks served cocktail-style - ask about our Tuscan inspired courtyard!

A four-hour beverage package including local beers, house selection of sparkling, white and red wines, soft drinks & juice.

Centre pieces, chair covers with your choice of sash and menus

A dressed table for the wedding gifts

A decorated table for the wedding cake & knife with which to make the first cut. From there, we'll provide you with a professional to slice and present the cake on platters for guests to enjoy.
